

Spool and Bobbin Fashion Show Set for Wednesday By Junior Woman's Club

A "Spool and Bobbin" fashion show, in which club members will model their own style creations, will highlight the meeting of the Torrance Junior Woman's club Wednesday evening at 8, at the club house, 1422 Engracia Ave. In the array of fashions will be new designs, new fabrics and a choice of new colors found on fashion fronts this spring. Mrs. John Schwartz is chairman of the fashion show and Miss Jerry Wood, co-chairman.

Mrs. C. Bowles will serve as commentator assisted by Mrs. Lou Stellar. Serving backstage will be Mrs. D. G. Paul and Mrs. J. K. Leopold. Mrs. Robert Stewart has coached the modeling.

On the fashion lineup are Mrs. Paul Winn who will model pedal pushers; Mrs. Richard Heath, navy and white polka dot cotton dress; Mrs. B. F. Townsend, pink and gray cotton print; Mrs. Don Moore, polished cotton watermelon print.

Mrs. John Agapito and daughter, Debby, will model a mother-daughter dress costume; Miss Jerry Wood, pink linen sheath dress with lined collar; Mrs. John Kemp in red cotton pleated skirt with matching quilted vest; Mrs. C. Albert Smith, gray orlon and cotton dress; and Mrs. James Halle in a beige rayon faille sheath and jacket.

Mrs. George Stevens will wear a hand knitted beige dress and Mrs. R. J. Setting will model a dress of her own design.

Mrs. Don Porter will wear a blue nylon lace over net dinner dress and her young daughter, Debby, will model a nylon dotted swiss with pinafore.

Mrs. Sid Gans will wear a straw skirt, aqua blouse and straw shoes and Mrs. Lou Stellar will model a sheath dress. Mrs. Jack Norris, who attended the recent hat class sponsored by the Senior Woman's Club will show her hat collection.

On either side of the stage will be a dress form, one dressed in gay nineties costume and the other in modern dress. The models will appear on stage and then walk down the stairs and among the guests. Stage decorations will be oversized scissors, tape measures and other sewing items.

Added to the evening's entertainment will be solos by Mrs. Sid Gans, who will sing "I Feel a Song Coming On," "It's a Grand Night for Singing," and "Begin the Beguine." She will be accompanied at the piano by Eva Brundin.

Mrs. Burton Tatum is in charge of the refreshments which will be served from a tea table decorated with candles and roses.

Broadway Hit Re-created For Woman's Club Members

Frances Nash Donovan brought "Broadway" to the Torrance Woman's club members, Wednesday, at their meeting at the club house. In her one-woman theatre, re-creation of a recent Broadway success, Miss Donovan fascinated her audience by quickly and deftly "setting the stage," creating characters, each a clearly-etched and distinct personality, whose identity once established was never lost as the drama unfolded. Setting for her play was an Okinawa Village during World War II. There were five characters in the play and in a unique manner the artist presented each character clearly.

Miss Donovan has appeared before the local club on other occasions and for this treatment a large percentage of club members were present. Native of the middlewest, but now residing in California, this versatile young actress has always been prominently identified with many facets of the American theatre.

Mrs. H. L. Mitchell, program chairman, presented the guest artist following a business meeting conducted by Mrs. R. J. Rogers, club president. Hostesses for the tea hour were Mrs. B. W. Roberts and Mrs. E. L. Snodgrass. Presiding at the tea services at either end of the table, which was decorated with figurine holders filled with margarites, were Mrs. Otto W. Willett and Mrs. M. M. Schwab.

The club will hold its regular pot luck luncheon on May 18 and installation of officers will be held June 1.

The Pixleys, who have spent 17 of their 25 wedded years living in this area, were married April 23, 1930, in Concordia, Kan., and have three sons, all of whom are married. They are Robert, Richard and William. The third son, William, who is stationed with the Army at Camp Barry, Marine City, Calif., was unable to attend the celebration. The other two sons who reside in Wilmington, were present with their families. Grandchildren of the couple are Twyla, Roberta and Linda Lee.

A white linen table cloth used on the refreshment table was a wedding present to the couple twenty-five years ago. A three-tiered cake decorated with miniature silver wedding bells was centered by dual arrangements of spring flowers. Presenting the couple with a silver dollar tree were the following guests: Messrs. and Mmes. Lynn Belder, Clarence, Ole Christensen of Santa Ana; Eddie Britton of Garden Grove, and James Parks of Torrance.

Messrs. and Mmes. Donald Leavett, Jack Carroll, parents of Mrs. Pixley; Walter Anderson, Robert Pixley and daughters; Richard Pixley and daughter of Wilmington.

Other guests included Messrs and Mmes. Lawrence Reynolds, O. B. McCoy, Clarence Johnson, Robert Rater, Stanley Thomas, Harry Benson and Mmes. Eldred Seward and daughter, Wilmington; Ardu Nosek, Jean Rhodes, Sadie Salisbury and son, Dick; Mary McShane, Stan Jacobsen, Melvin James, Johnnie Phillips, all of Torrance and Mrs. Mercy Rater of Los Angeles.

Refreshment hostesses were Mrs. Robert Pixley and Mrs. Richard Pixley, daughter-in-laws of the honored pair.
